FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DEFENDING CHAMPION WARRIORS

OPEN ICE CAMP MONDAY

All Press are Invited for Photos and Interviews ~~Monday~~ TUES, Oct ~~1~~ 2 from 5-6 P.M.

Head Coach Paul Arsenault will welcome 17 lettermen and 35 newcomers to the opening of the Loyola training camp Monday. The only loss from last season's rookie-laden championship club is All-Star Defenceman Glen Surbey, currently with Atlanta Flames.

Dave Brandt Returns

Leading the returning lettermen is All-Star Centre David Brandt, former hockey Canada M.V.P., unanimous Q.U.A.A. All-Star, and Warrior leading scorer (73 pts) and M.V.P. The 6' 185 lb. senior, playing his third season with the Warriors after turning down two professional contracts last year, is expected to be an All-Canadian Centre selection this year.

Lettermen return from Professional Training Camps

Two Warrior veterans have returned from Professional Training Camps. Right Winger Doug Lynch, the Warriors' third leading scorer last season with 29 goals and 23 assists, attended the Buffalo Sabres Camp; and Left Winger Grant Bennett, the fourth leading scorer last season with 15 goals and 32 assists, has returned from the Toronto Maple Leafs' Camp.

Newcomers Brighten Picture

Some impressive newcomers will make a run for regular positions over some returning players this year. Included in this group are Randy Mohns, a swift Center and fourth leading scorer from the Centennial Cup finalist Pembroke Lumber Kings, and Steve Benoit former Warrior Winger who transferred to UNB last year, who is returning to the Warriors. Rob McLernon, Quebec All-Star Right Winger from Bishop's University, has transferred to Loyola and Mike Haramis, high scoring Winger from the Laval Nationals, has returned from the New York Rangers Training Camp.
